SEP 28 1954

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

Circ.: d. 556,456

S. 572,049

Front Page

Page Page

SEP 28 195 Date:

THEY SAY CPYRGHT

uty director of the Central In-en, on putting 10 ringleaders telligence Agency, asserting that of a riot in solitary confine-American news media provide ment: mountains of information of value to a hostile nation:

"It would take countless hours of painstaking reexpenditure of money for us to obtain comparable information on the Soviet Union."

Rear Adm. Donald B. Mac-Millan, 79, returning from a schooner voyage to the Far North where winds reached a velocity of 120 miles an hour:

"Never had anything like it for foul weather, but that makes it the more Interesting. I'm planning to go back next year."

Col. Lawrence K. White, dep-| Frank Sain, Bridewell ward-

"I will be reasonable, but tough if I have to be."

Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, 39, of Pittsfield, Me., already the mother of 14 daughters and awaitiing the birth of her 15th

"I think it's going to be a girl, and I hope I'm right."